Monday, February 9th, 1747. [Numb. 669]

Mr Timothy,

The following Copy of a Treaty which is said to have been stipulated between the French King and the Pretender, was reported to have been found in the Cabinet of one of the English Ministers of State, who was removed from his Office in the Year 1715 And as it contains nothing less than a Design to extirpate the Protestant Religion in these Kingdoms, and a total Subversion of the British Government, under which we enjoy so many glorious Priviledges, that no People can boast of the like, I imagine that to give it a Place in your Paper, will not be unseasonable at this Time, both as it may help to confirm some in their Loyalty to the present Royal Family, and convince those who were factious enough to wish for a Revolution, how little they would have gain'd, or rather, how little they would have kept of what they are already Masters of, under an arbitrary Popish pretended Prince, set upon the Throne by the Power of a perfidious French King.

Articles of the Treaty.

ARTICLE I. THAT the Pretender (stiled his Britannick Majesty) doth agree, as soon as he shall be restored to his Dominions, in Consideration of the Assistance which he shall receive from the King of France, to quit all Manner of Claim to the Title and Arms of France, and shall take effectual Care to erase the same out of the Royal Escutcheons of England.

II. That he shall entirely resign the Sovereignty of the Narrow Seas to the French, and to that Purpose, shall give Orders to his Admirals, and Commanders of his Ships of War, to strike to the French Flags.

III. That he shall be obliged to assist his most Christian Majesty with 30 Capital Ships and 20,000 Land Forces, whenever he shall demand them, and this wholly at the Charge of the English

IV. That he shall make or enter into no Alliance against France, but shall unfeignedly observe a perpetual League both Offensive and Defensive with the Crown of France.

V. That he shall permit unto the French King at all Times, the free Use of his Ports for the Retreat of his Ships And then and there shall furnish him with proper Conveniencies, and the Use of his Arsenals. As also, with able Workmen to repair his endamag'd Ships, or to build new Ones whensoever he shall demand them.

VI. That he shall admit into his standing Forces, what Number and Strength shall from Time be regulated in Concert with the French King: And a Body of 20,000 French and 10,000 Catholick Switzers, fewer or more, in Proportion to the Troops of his own Subjects. And not only so, but shall deliver up Dover Castle, Plymouth and Portsmouth, to be garrison'd by French; as also Hull and Berwick, which two last the French King consents shall be garrison'd by half English.

VII. That Edinburgh-Castle shall be garriton'd by independent Companies of the same Nation, but of such Clans as the French King shall nominate.

VIII. That in Regard to the convenient Situation of the Irish Ports for the French Fleets, in Consequence also of the Agreement in Religion of the Irish with the People of France, He shall (after his full Restoration to the Kingdoms of England and Scotland) give up Ireland to the French King for ever, in Compensation of the Expence which he has already been at or shall hereafter incur in his Quarrel

IX. That Protestants who are Possessors of Land in Ireland, and will not become Roman Catholicks, shall be obliged to sell their Estates at a set Price to the French King, who will let them out to the old Irish Proprietors at a certain Quit Rent and Services, which shall in a reasonable Time reimburse him of the first Purchase Money.

X. But still, to shew the good Nature and Lenity of his most Christian Majesty, he consents, that such Protestants who desire it, may depart with their Effects wheresoever they please.

XI. That the Pope's Nuncio be permitted to reside in England, and that free Toleration shall be given for the Worship of the Holy Roman Catholick Religion.

XII and XIII. That the English Admirals and Commanders of Ships of War do not oblige the Swedes to strike as formerly; but that all Nations shall pay Tribute at the Entrance into the Sound, except those of his Catholick Majesty. And that the English Admirals and Commanders of Ships of War strike to the Maltese.

XIV. That the Island of Minorca with all its Fortifications, Gibraltar and its Fortifications, shall be restored to his Catholick Majesty our Granson; and full Satisfaction and Recompence shall be made to the Inhabitants, for the Damages which they have suffered by Foreign Troops. The King of Great Britain shall also be obliged to furnish his Catholick Majesty with 10 Ships of War, of the Line, for a valuable Consideration

XV. That the Emperor and Dutch Merchants be brought to content to the Barrier Treaty signed by the Ministers of his most Christian Majesty and of the King of Great Britain And,

XVI That Care be taken of Prince Ragotski, if he refuses to reside in England

BOSTON, December 8.

Last Week an Express arrived here from the Westward, with certain Advice, that the Mohawk Indians have committed Hostilities upon the French and their Indian Allies —That one Party of them lately went to Cadarqui Lake, where they kill'd 8 of the French Men (six of whom they scalp'd) and took 7 or 8 Prisoners, whom they brought to Albany.—That another Party, with Hendrick, one of their Sachems at their Head, having been to Mont Real, and there conferr'd with the Governor, and receiv'd valuable Presents from him, upon their Return, at an Island in the Lake Chamblain, call'd La Motte, seeing some French Men at Work, fired upon them and kill'd one (whom they scalp'd and took another Prisoner; and, that a Number of French being at an House at some Distance, surpriz'd at the Noise of the Guns, ran out to know the Cause, upon whom the Mohawks fired Buck shot, and then (their Canoes being ready) escap'd over the Lake and brought their Prisoner and Scalp with them to Albany.

We hear from Louisburgh, that Governor Knowles lay dangerously ill when the last Vessel away.

Dorchester, Feb 6th, 1746 7.

Mr. Timothy,

I WAS glad to see the Magistrates of Charlestown, as well as the Inhabitants, vindicated in one of your late Papers against the Censure contained in your Paragraph in that of the 5th ultimo, relating to the Prophanation of the Lord's Day The Chief Magistrate was undoubtedly included in it, Charlestown having been honoured with His Presence for three Years before. I take your Silence for an Acknowledgment of your Fault But give me Leave to say, that tho' the Chief Magistrate hath had equal Justice done him with the rest, as to the Charge of having disregarded the Act for the better Observation of the Lord's Day; yet he is not cleared from all the evil Suggestions contained in that Paragraph. You informed us therein, that, "by his Excellency's "Order,

" Order, SENTINELS are now placed at the Town Gates every " Sunday, to prevent as much as poſſible the Prophanation of the " Lord's Day; to reſtrain all looſe and idle Perſons from going a " pleaſuring on that Day during the Time of Divine Service, &c. "

Upon peruſing the Act before mentioned, I find, " That the " CHURCH WARDENS and CONSTABLES of Charleſtown " are directed to walk through the ſaid Town in the Time of " Divine Service on the Lord's Day, and to obſerve and ſuppreſs " all thoſe Things which are therein declared Offences on that " Day. AND for the better Execution of the ſeveral Orders, " every Juſtice of the Peace within his County hath Power and " Authority to convene before him any Perſon whatſoever who " ſhall offend; and, upon his own View, Confeſſion of the " Party, or Proof upon Oath, to impoſe the Fine and Penalty " for the Offence. " It hath been debated therefore amongſt my Neighbours here in the Country, whether (as Charles Town is not imagined to be a garriſoned Town) by the Word Sentinels in your ſaid Paragraph we ought not to underſtand CONSTABLE? placed at the Gates, not indeed to ſtop Perſons forcibly, but to watch, (like Sentinels) obſerve who go in or out, and give Information to the Juſtices. But this ſeems too forced a Conſtruction; and by the Word Sentinels, I think muſt be underſtood in the moſt plain and obvious Senſe Soldiers, of which there are now many in that Town. Here then, as I ſaid, lies an evil Suggeſtion againſt the Chief Ruler, not yet removed. Can it be ſuppoſed that He, who is ſolemnly bound to obſerve our Laws; that He who gave us Aſſurance in the firſt Speech that he made in General Aſſembly (and which we are poſſeſſed of in Print) " that he would make our Laws and Conſtitution his dai- " ly Study, and the Rule of his Conduct; " that He I ſay, who is at the Head of Civil as well as Military Affairs, ſhould cauſe to execute thoſe Laws by SOLDIERS; and reſtrain People by the Point of a Bayonet, from doing, at the Peril of their Lives, that for which the Law will accept of Five Shillings Satisfaction? Surely it cannot be. For if ſo, ſhould any one of us (urged by ſome innocent or commendable Occaſion, and willing to pay the Penalty tho' greater than it is) ſet out for Charleſtown on a Sunday; and being ſtopped at the Gate by a ſoldier, ſhould endeavour (relying on the Laws of his Country) to force his Way as againſt a H, and be killed, or kill the other; a Subject would then be loſt to himſelf and Family, as well as to the Crown. And how could it be juſtified, or made Amends for?

Sir, Your Information about thoſe Sentinels muſt certainly be wrong. If one part of your Paragraph, which aſſerts the Practice of Marketing on Sundays, be ſo; Why may not this other part be ſuppoſed to be wrong alſo? You are accuſed of too many We's here. Come then, Mr. Timothy, if your Knees are not too ſore with your late kneeling to the Magiſtrates, down again! and aſk Pardon —— —— I am

Your humble Servant, S. T.
